

Jill Wolins (AEA*SAG/AFTRA) is delighted to be back with DMA, where she began her journey in dance. After completing her BFA in Dance Performance, she started her career in Beauty and the Beast at Disney. She carried on to perform in Broadway touring productions of The Producers, Will Roger's Follies, Sweet Charity and Grease, as well as numerous years with the Radio City Rockettes in NYC. Jill has been seen dancing in ABC Disney's Christmas Special, numerous episodes of The Late Show (CBS), The Producers movie, and on stage with recording artists such as Deborah Gibson, Jon Bon Jovi and Nile Rodgers and Chic. Ms Wolins continued her career teaching across the country and worldwide in England, Australia, Russia, South Africa, China, and Japan. She then carried on to choreograph, design curriculums and creative direct national dance conventions, competitions and dance camps nationwide and abroad. Jill's favorite part of her career is working with kids and adjudicating. She has adjudicated hundreds of thousands of young dancers to date, and loves to see kids challenging themselves to be better every time they perform!
