

Danni Heverin

Danni signed with Xcel Talent Agency, at age 16, which launched the beginning of her professional dance career. Danni went on to graduate from the University of Alabama with a Bachelors of Arts Degree in both business and dance. Eleven days after graduation, Danni received the call of a lifetime that she had landed a coveted spot in the world's most iconic precision dance troupe, the Radio City Rockettes. Danni went on to perform 8 magical seasons as a Rockette on the Great Stage at Radio City Music Hall.

Throughout her 15+ year career, Danni has made numerous appearances in live and scripted television shows, feature films and iconic events. Her television credits include: HBO's LOVECRAFT COUNTRY, ABC's NASHVILLE, THE TONIGHT SHOW, TODAY SHOW, STEP UP: HIGHWATER, MACY'S THANKSGIVING DAY PARADE, GENIUS: ARETHA FRANKLIN on National Geographic and most recently A FRIEND OF THE FAMILY on Peacock. Heverin can also be seen dancing in the feature films, HBO'S FATHER OF THE BRIDE, LOVE, SIMON, BILLY LYNN'S LONG HALFTIME WALK, HONEY 4: RISE UP, ARE YOU THERE GOD, and both Disney's MILLION DOLLAR ARM and TIMMY FAILURE. Danni has performed alongside music sensations including: Cythia Erivo, Christina Aguilera, Teyana Taylor, Ne-Yo, Blake Shelton, Luke Bryan, Big & Rich and more!

Alongside her impressive performance resume, Danni is an up and coming choreographer. Her work as a choreographer and movement coach can be seen in ECHO 3 and THE BIG DOOR PRIZE both on Apple+. Danni has assisted industry leading choreographers and contributed movement on projects such as: Disney's GODMOTHERED, Facebook Watch's QUEEN AMERICA and 21st Century Fox's LETS BE COPS.

Danni teaches a weekly sold out jazz class on Tuesday nights at Xcel Studios in Atlanta, GA. Her passion lies in educating and preparing the next generation of movement artists for longevity and happiness in their personal dance journey. When Danni is not performing, she travels the country as a master teacher, adjudicator and choreographer.
