

Drew Burgess

Ohio native, Drew, made his industry debut on 'Live with Regis' during Amazing Kids Week. Upon relocating to California, he trained at L.A.'s best studios including EDGE, Millennium, Fusion, & the PAC Annex. Drew is highly sought after as a performer, choreographer, guest teacher, dance supervisor, & dance captain. Drew can be seen on teaching & adjudication panels for: Chicago National Association of Dance Masters, Dance Teachers Club of Boston, Dance Masters of America Regional Chapters, Dance Educators of America, Encore PAC Showcase, the Rhee Gold Company, & Shake the Ground. A former competitor himself, Drew's regional titles include Master, Junior, & Teen Mr. Dance of Ohio, as well as, Mr. Dance of the Pacific Coast. Nationally, Drew is a former Jr. Mr. Dance of America and Mr. Dance of America. Drew is certified by test to teach through DMA & DEA in Ballet, Tap, Jazz, & Acrobatics & is an active member in both organizations. Drew is also proud to be Acrobatic Arts Certified (M1-M3) & part of their U.S. Division Staff of Course Conductors & Examiners.

Drew's passion for dance circles the globe with guest workshop classes, technique clinics, & choreography; year-round. His corporate & live entertainment credits include performances with the Radio City Rockettes, Taylor Swift, & The Baha Men. Drew's students have accolades that include: Teen Miss Dance of Arizona, Male Dancer of the Year, Miss Dance of Ohio, Mr. Dance of America, and one of Radio City Music Hall's newest Rockettes. His National Choreographic merits include the Sherry Gold Memorial Choreography Award from DMA, as well as Best Small Group & Production from NexStar. Drew has toured worldwide with Rasta Thomas' Bad Boys of Dance as a four-track swing in 'Rock the Ballet 2' & as a two-track swing in 'Romeo & Juliet'. He was honored to serve as the Tap Director for four years at Spisak Dance Academy in Glendale, Arizona; but currently resides in Columbus, Ohio & is part of the weekly teaching staff at Straub Dance Center. Drew has also filmed several episodes of class content for dancers & teachers at CLI Studios. Most recently, he has worked with The Ohio State University Dance Team as a Guest AcroDance Coach.
