

Danielle Sheather

Danielle Lydia Sheather, MFA (www.daniellelydiasheather.com) is currently serving as Assistant Professor at Southern Utah University. Most recently she developed and wrote the curriculum for the progressive jazz dance track at SUU to represent a more equitable education allowing jazz dance to now be on par with both ballet and modern dance training. She has previously served as Clinical Assistant Professor at the University at Buffalo, Guest Artist and Instructor at East Carolina University and is an ABT® Certified Teacher in Primary through Level 5 of the ABT® National Training Curriculum. She is also a certified Yoga Instructor and has taught for New York Yoga and Sonic Yoga in NYC. She enjoys teaching master classes for Dance Masters of America's Teachers Training School and the SHIP Program. Danielle received her MFA from the University of Arizona as a University Fellow and graduated Summa Cum Laude from the University at Buffalo Honors College with a BFA in Dance and BA in Psychology. Professional credits include Stiletto Entertainment/Holland America Cruise Lines, Artpark, Sesame Street Live, Busch Garden Europe, Dance Jam, The International Dance Festival, Truthdance, BalaSole Dance Company, New York Fashion Week, National Commercials for Busch Gardens Europe and specs for Bacardi, Chain Reaction, and Diamante Pictures.