

Reigning Solo Title Report
Atlanta, Georgia
2023

Madame President, Board of Directors, DMA Members,

As always, it has been an honor and a pleasure to serve Dance Masters of America as the Reigning Solo Title coordinator. As in the past, the title holders and their parents were a delight to work with, and communication this year was very good. Adding the "Dropbox" feature was easy to complete the farewell speech process. I will continue my work of keeping the title holders informed of important information during the coming year as well as requesting the necessary information needed to provide to the National DMA Office.

Title winners for 2022 are as follows:

Petite Miss Dance - Sadie Daniels, Chapter 16
Master Dance - Gus Goodman, Chapter 16
Junior Miss Dance - Gabriella Hardy, Chapter 17
Junior Mister Dance - Cameron Mosolygo, Chapter 46
Teen Miss Dance - Anami Halo Canterna, Chapter 17
Teen Mister Dance - Eric Smith, Chapter 40
Miss Dance - Payton Nickerson, Chapter 16
Mr. Dance - Taro Yamashita, Chapter 40

This past year I received all the farewell speeches through "Dropbox" and this process worked beautifully. Having the title holders meet our deadline date is still a challenge, but it is getting better. Some students requested permission to perform or work for various companies. I wanted to say how much I, and the students, appreciated such quick responses from Advisory.

It is a joy to work with these talented young men and women and I cherish each moment.

Respectfully Submitted,

Phyllis R. Guy
Reigning Solo Title Coordinator
