

Kiki Lucas is currently an Assistant Professor of Dance at Point Park University teaching Jazz Technique, Contemporary Partnering, and Entrepreneurship and the Arts. She is an alumna and has been a part of the Point Park International Summer Dance faculty since 2002. She was the Resident Choreographer and dancer of Met Dance Company in Houston, TX as well as Mosaic Dance Project in Miami, FL. She travels with the Universal Ballet Competition as a judge and guest teacher.

Her choreography has been presented twice at Jacob's Pillow Inside Out Stage, The Kennedy Center, Point Park University's productions of both Pippin and Curtains, and most recently at Western Michigan University, Wright State University, and Dreyfoos School of the Arts. She is currently pursuing her MFA from Montclair State University.

Her International teaching credits include Argentina, Colombia, Costa Rica, Panama, Uruguay and Mexico.

Other teaching credits include Modas, Broadway Dance Center, Debbie Reynold's, Choreographer's Ball Los Angeles CA, Miami Arts Charter School and Dance Masters of America.

Kiki has spread her passion for dance both internationally and across the United States while in constant pursuit of sharing and gaining knowledge and growth.