

AMANDA WELCH

Amanda Welch was born and raised in Birmingham, Alabama where she started training in dance at 3 years old. At the age of 18, she moved to Los Angeles to pursue her career in dance where she has trained & worked with Kyle Hanagami, Sheryl Murakami, Nika Kljun, Cameron Lee, Lee Daniel, and Kennis Marquis, just to name a few.

She has had the opportunity to travel on Tour with Todrick Hall, perform in Shanghai, dance for our troops overseas in Amman, Jordan and was a featured dancer in "Millennials the Musical" created by Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson and Lin Manuel Miranda. She danced and assisted choreography for country sensation, Keith Urban, for his single "Never Comin Down." She also danced with JLo in her music video, "Medicine."

Aside from dancing, Amanda has an extreme passion for the art of teaching dance! She has traveled to parts of China and New Zealand to share her passion for movement overseas. She combines her soulful groove & musicality to create authentic movement that feels good to the body. Amanda enjoys spicing it up and giving a little different flavor with each class she teaches. Amanda says, "it's all about learning and gaining knowledge on both ends, for me as a teacher & for my students. It's that mutual exchange that feeds my soul."
